Just a Word...

by Fr. Harvey

As we begin the second week of the Lenten season, we might do well to focus our prayerful attention beyond ourselves. True, each of us is called to personal renewal and reconciliation. But let's not forget to pray for each other, especially for those who need a little extra encouragement to return to the full practice of their Christian faith. The number of people who have come to the Sacrament of Penance since the beginning of Lent is a marked increase from the past months. As Bishop Zaleski mentioned in his pastoral letter a couple of weeks ago, "As we join Christians of earlier times in these and other acts of prayer and self denial, it is important that we are led ultimately to the Sacrament of Penance in which we rejoice as they did in God's forgiveness granted through the Church. It is in keeping with our history that Catholics have come to place high value on what is called the 'Easter Confession'." As we prepare with one another for our "Easter Confession," you might keep in mind that we plan to hold a Lenten Penance Service on Friday, April 5 at 7:30 p.m. Additional priests will be available that evening to help celebrate your reconciliation with God and each other through the Church.

Last Sunday, some of the area parishes, including our own, were represented at the second Holy Year Mass celebrated in the Cathedral in Lansing by Bishop Sullivan. Special invitations were issued to all members of parish worship committees to come together for the beginning of the second phase of the Holy Year celebration in our Diocese. As might be expected at a gathering of Christians with special interest in Liturgy, the Holy Year Mass was a beautiful experience. Participation was total and spirited. Among those who made the trip to Lansing on a bus that didn't break any speed limit were our worship commission chairman, Clem Budinger and wife Margaret, lector and lay distributor, Ed Look and wife Marge, usher Harry Roof and his wife and co-usheress Gertrude, choir member and lay distributor, Imelda Haug, Mrs. Adeline Moore and son Paul, and altar boys, Pat Sullivan, Bill Wagner, Mike and Frank Williams. As a member of the Diocesan Liturgical Commission, yours truly joined in the concelebration of the Mass. Thanks to all who were able to make the trip.

Special thanks is also long overdue to Don Randazzo for all the work he has done in the choir loft readying the area for the installation of the 'new organ'. Prior to tearing out the risers, Walter Brown and the late Bob Schrepper disassembled all of the pews in that area. Dave Wheeler and Bob Hallman spent several hours relocating electrical wires and outlets. To all of them, our sincerest thanks.

I hope you have noticed the new lighting fixtures which were recently installed at all church entrances. The old fixtures were rusted beyond repair. Our additional thanks to Dave Wheeler, Administration Commission chairman, for ordering and installing them. The new fixtures on the north Hamilton St. exit will be installed when matching fixtures are installed on our new outside basement entrance. Speaking of the new entrance, work has progressed in fine fashion The contractor continues to wait for the new doors which will be installed at the new entrance.

Today marks the mid-point of our special drive for the renovation of the church hall area. Almost $3,000.00 was received last weekend as pledge payments and cash gifts. We are grateful to the family of the late John Adams for remembering our parish at the time of his death with a Memorial Contribution of $176.60. Some new pledges were also received last week as indicated on the special barometer. Among the Lenten sacrifices we make this season, let us not forget this special project.

Lastly, we dare not forget to hallow the memory of St. Patrick next Sunday, March 17th. Some delightful Irish coffee will be enjoyed at the home of Pat and Nan O'Hara following the 9:00 a.m Mass next Sunday until 3:30 - 3:30 p m March 17th that is -- not 3:30 a.m March 18th But who knows what will happen when the real and the adopted from the Emerald Isle gather together. All parishioners and friends are surely invited to 479 Courtland.

A 'BIRTHDAY' INVITATION

The family of James Warner cordially invites the parishioners of St. John's for an open house birthday reception next Thursday, March 14, 1974 from 7:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m. at the Ypsilanti American Legion Hall. That date marks the anniversary of the release of the former prisoner of war. Jim married Sharon McGinley here at St. John's last October 13. You are invited to join with family and friends in celebrating Jim's "first" birthday.

PARISH NUPTIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Shawn Timothy Byrnes

Shawn T Byrnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry J. Byrnes, exchanged the solemn vows of marriage with Janice Roberta Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, on Friday evening during a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Fr. Harvey

Thomas Smither and Julia McWilliams, both of Ypsilanti, were the main attendants.

Serving the Liturgy as Cantor was Sr. Mary O'Connell accompanied by Miss Marie Stachlewitz as organist. The groom's brother, Matthew, was the Lector.

"Love is always patient and kind; it is never jealous or rude."

IN THE PEACE OF CHRIST

Mary Holdridge

Our parish community is saddened by the death of Mrs. Mary Holdridge. Mary died on Thursday, February 28, 1974. The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on Saturday, March 2, 1974 by Fr. Harvey. Burial followed in St. John's Cemetery.

Throughout her many years spent in this parish, Mary has been an active participant in the life of our community. The family lives at 1128 N. Congress St.

She is survived by her husband, Harry, two sons, Thomas and James, both of California, and one daughter, Mrs. John (Mary) Dawson of this parish. Fifteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren as well as two sisters also survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Holdridge celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary here in the Fall of 1970.

We pray that Mary may be given the reward of her labors. May all who have served this parish faithfully share the peace of Christ.

PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

The retreats we promised you are now planned. It's really an overnight EXERCISE IN CHRISTIAN LIVING - the kind of retreat many college students have found very meaningful.

WORKSHOP FOR CHRISTIANS HANDLING CONFLICT

A four week workshop on the healthy expression and resolution of anger and conflict. What did you learn as a child about expressing emotions, especially anger? What happens when anger is not openly expressed? How can you express your upset or anger in a way that leads to a deeper and more satisfying relationship?

Frustration and irritation are a natural part of healthy human relating. Suppressing (ignoring) anger and tension can lead to irritability, anxiety, depression and boredom, while vital and controlled resolution lead to increased understanding, growth and joy.

The purpose of this brief class is to learn how to make closeness and harmony grow by resolving conflicts effectively.

Each session will provide practical information and a few exercises to assist each participant to see his or her communication pattern and to practice new patterns if change is desired.

This class is open to all adults. The fee is $4.00 for four weeks. Partial attendance will be harmful to the group. You are requested to attend all of the sessions if you register for the class. Facilitator is Maddie Reno, O.P., who is a psychiatric social worker presently teaching and leading groups at Siena Heights College.

To register call: Sr Anne Heath at 483-3408 or 483-6378.

The group will meet at St. John Center, 411 Florence Street Wednesday evenings 8:00 - 9:30; March 13, 20, 27 and April 3.

Christmas Bazaar Work Begins

Several women of the parish met with Christmas Bazaar coordinator, Cathy Guidebeck, on Thursday, February 28 in the church hall. After comparing and suggesting ideas, the following offered to be House Hostesses where work could proceed once a month:

Joanne Craddick - 305 Edison - 434-3485.
Mary Wheeler - 2360 Colony Way - 434-3159.
Rose Davis - 105 W. Cross - 483-8787.
Cathy Guidebeck - 1385 Arroyo Dr. - 434-1508.

There is still a need for more homes to be opened If any one wants to volunteer a place that is not in the general area of the above, please contact Cathy Guidebeck and make this known

Also, if there are women in the parish willing to do something for the bazaar but want to do it in your own home, contact Cathy so that she will know what to plan on

NEEDS:

Pine cones, Pop tabs and rings, tin-can lids of any size, burlap, and felt. Material scraps, including usable zippers, snaps, lg. buttons, etc. are also in need. These can be dropped off at the Service Commission meeting room in the rectory any day.

THOUGHT:

If you are planning to can before November, why not put aside something of what you do for the bazaar...if you are knitting booties, etc., why not make another set for the bazaar...this is the way to build for the future.

BACK ISSUES OF YPSILANTI CATHOLIC SOUGHT

We have had most issues bound by years, however, we are missing a few copies from 1968 and 1969. If anyone has been saving Ypsilanti Catholics for any reason and is willing to part with some, the copies needed are March 9, September 28, October 5, and October 12 of the year 1969. All of the copies for 1968 are needed January through March, also August 4 and 25, September 15 and 29, October 6, 13, and 20, December 15 and 29. We would urge you to help us keep this parish history up to date.
